Teens...Get Involved and Make a Difference in your Community

On Saturday, October 4, from 1-3 p.m. the Volunteer Center of North Texas will host the fourth annual Collin County Teen Volunteer Fair at Strikz Entertainment Center in Frisco located at 8789 Lebanon Road.

More than 200 teens will rally to learn about the importance of giving back to their community through volunteerism while enjoying fun entertainment with peers, family and friends. Teens will interact with representatives from local nonprofit agencies such as McKinney Performing Arts Center, Frisco Miracle League, CITY House, Share A Smile and NewStart Angel Food to learn about their organizations and how they can help make a difference. Teens who sign up will receive a free game of bowling or laser tag, and the first 100 teens to visit agency booths will receive a free t-shirt.

Sponsors include: Strikz Entertainment Center, JCPenny, Tom Thumb, 106.1 KISS FM, Clear Channel Dallas and Frisco RoughRiders.
